

REview and PREview
Wed 8/29/2018 6:02 PM

Good Wednesday evening! I trust you are off to another great week and enjoying the clearer skies and cooler temps.

REview - Three documents: Sunday's sermon, Reinhold Niebuhr's "To Whom Shall We Go," and Debie Thomas' "Why I Stay: A Prayer" will be uploaded to our web page in a couple of weeks. I enjoyed chatting with a few of you already, in response to the words of these two powerful writers. I had fun placing the writings (one from 1927 and the other from 2016) so closely together. I'd be honored to chat with you over coffee/tea once you get an opportunity to take a look at them. There was a sweet and serious mood in the sanctuary Sunday. Moving, indeed.

PREview - The readings for Sunday are Psalm 47, James 1:17-27 and Mark 7:1-8, 14-15, 21-23. I hope you'll have a chance to take a look at these before we gathering on Sunday. Expect a briefer sermon to allow time at the Lord's Table and for anointing. I hope you'll make every effort to be in attendance.

Remember that Sunday is our ANNUAL PICNIC....AT SALT CREEK! Always fun. Bring a dish to share and a chair to sit in! Maybe a sweater????...and a coat???

If you have your own horse shoes (to throw, not wear), bring them also!!!

Special thanks to Jan Baertschiger and her crew who host such a wonderful annual event!!!!

Blessings,
Pastor Tom
