Good Wednesday afternoon. Hope you are off to a good week.

REview - Sunday's sermon both audio and print has been uploaded onto our website for your review.

PREview - We are nearing our Lenten destination - Jerusalem. On Sunday, we will participate in a dramatic reading written by Dr. Walter Wangrin:

"The Cry of the Whole Congregation." Four readers (of the passion narratives in the Gospels) will share the story, but everyone will have a part to play. Remember to wave your palm branch!!!! Please come and why not invite a friend?

Holy Week events:

Palm/Passion Sunday - 14 April - 10 AM in the sanctuary.

Holy Thursday - 18 April - Soup supper at 6 PM; Holy Communion and Foot Washing at 7 PM in the sanctuary.

Good Friday - 19 April - Tenebrae/Service of Shadows at 7 PM.

Candle-filled sanctuary. Featuring choir, solo, and guest cellist Marlene Moore.

Easter Sunday - 10 AM celebration in sanctuary! Living Cross (we will decorate with freshly cut flowers!) and Holy Communion. Don't miss this spectacular gathering. Lovely brunch to follow at 11.30 AM.

I hope you will make every effort to participate in the events scheduled for the upcoming days.
